

Announcement of Banphue Police Station

Subject : Declaration of Intent on No Gift Policy from Performing Duties

.....

Ban Phue Police Station is committed to conducting its duties with integrity, transparency, fairness, and accountability in accordance with the principles of good governance. We aim to strengthen public trust and foster an organizational culture free from corruption and misconduct.

I, together with all police officers and personnel of Ban Phue Police Station, hereby declare our common intention not to accept any gifts, gratuities, property, hospitality, or any other benefits that may be converted into monetary value in connection with or resulting from the performance of official duties, whether before, during, or after such duties are performed. Such acceptance may influence decision-making, the exercise of discretion, or create conflicts of interest between personal and public interests.

Therefore, Ban Phue Police Station establishes the following guidelines:

๑. No gifts, gratuities, property, or any other benefits shall be accepted in relation to official duties under any circumstances.
๒. Personnel shall neither request, accept, nor consent to receiving any benefit that may affect the impartial performance of their duties.
๓. All duties shall be performed with honesty, transparency, fairness, and accountability.
๔. An organizational culture of integrity and zero tolerance for corruption shall be promoted and maintained.
๕. Supervision, monitoring, and compliance measures shall be strictly enforced, and any violation of this policy shall be subject to disciplinary and legal actions.

This declaration is made to ensure that Ban Phue Police Station remains an organization of integrity, transparency, and public confidence. All officers and personnel are required to strictly comply with this policy.

This announcement is hereby issued on January ๑, ๒๐๒๖

Police Colonel

(Thanakorn Pattananunkaew)

Superintendent of Banphue Police Station
